

1.

Change is good

Make your new city-girl friends Downtown status official with a stylish solution to collecting all that extra change for meters, laundry or the Metroink. The Bank-a-Bank from LMA scores points for its modern design and playful hues of pink, green or black ($12; LMA, Downtown, 314-241-9993).

3.

Take charge

With all the new gadgets at our fingertips, it's easy to let your technology take over, and a tangled mess ensues. Perfect for the to-liv-er who needs space- (and stress-) saving solutions, the Bedford Smart Recharge Station seamlessly connects to high-tech accessories by keeping electronics and cords discreet and organized ($79; potterybarn.com).

4.

Here comes the rain

If there's one accessory a new cityista needs, it's a cute umbrella to have handy when traversing Wash. Ave. or across town. The bold, modern design of the Burberry Microlite Pocket Umbrella is sure to be her new rainy-day fave ($125; sakofftravenus.com).

the new urbanite

Must-haves for the just-moved-Downtown giftee.

2.

We heart St. Louis

Represent St. Louis from head to toe with the fashion-friendly apparel and accessories from STL Style. Showcasing images of the city's most popular landmarks paired with smart city-centric slogans, the tees, thongs, onesies and bags make the perfect gifts for anyone who calls The Lou home ($29.95; stl-style.com).

5.

How we roll

Give the gift that keeps on giving to your always-on-the-go friend, a membership to WeCar. Designed for members of a community that want to help reduce the number of cars on the road and contribute to a greener, cleaner environment, these Enterprise hybrid cars provide members the chance to borrow vehicles up to twenty-four hours at a time ($35, one-year membership includes insurance and gas; $10/hour driving time; wecar.com/stl).